

Let's learn Sashiko. Fun friendly and addictive. Come along and get started with the addictive art of Japanese sashiko and boro. No skills needed, for beginner/intermediate levels.

£55 (1 day) From the beginning! Learn all about stitch techniques and supplies. £5 per day material cost.

£100 (2 day) Learn the boro technique and prepare 2 large items (1 sashiko and 1 boro) to complete at home.£5 per day material cost.

Sashiko and boro are staples of Japanese culture. Learn this fabulously relaxing stitching from Jill, author of Sashiko by Jill Clay (GMC Publications) and look out for the follow up!

Konnichiwa! We are excited to extend a warm invitation to our captivating Japanese Sashiko Stitching workshops in Richmond, North Yorkshire!

Why should you join us?

1. Discover the art of Sashiko: Our workshops offer a unique opportunity to delve into the fascinating world of Japanese Sashiko stitching. Uncover the rich history and techniques behind this traditional craft.
2. Master the art of mindful stitching: Sashiko is not just a form of embroidery but a mindful practice that promotes tranquility and focus. Engage in a meditative experience as you stitch intricate patterns.
3. Guided by seasoned instructors: Our knowledgeable instructors, well-versed in the art of Sashiko, will be there to guide you every step of the way. Their expertise will help you create exquisite patterns and designs.
4. Connect with fellow stitching enthusiasts: Embrace the sense of community as you join like-minded individuals who appreciate the beauty of Sashiko stitching. Share stories, ideas, and cultural insights.
5. Immerse yourself in Japanese culture: Experience a touch of Japan right here in Richmond.
6. Learn about the symbolism and significance of Sashiko in Japanese tradition.

7. All materials provided: You need not worry about gathering supplies; we have taken care of everything. Simply bring your enthusiasm (and your specs) and let the stitching begin!

Sashiko stitching is not only an art form but a journey into a world of culture and creativity. Richmond's picturesque charm offers the perfect backdrop for your stitching adventure.

Secure your spot today, and let's stitch together at our Japanese Sashiko Stitching workshops in Richmond! We can't wait to welcome you to this captivating experience!